

Prologue Of The Senior Class

In the great year of 1951
The Senior Class journey had begun.
Those who started in our class -- 24
Remain to tell the strife that we have bore.
Elaine Austin, Barbara Chase, Bill Beardslee,
Johanna Clark, Mark Slentz, Connie Ramsey.
Donna Meyers, Ron Holl, Karyl Cooper,
Gerrie Todd, Ed Bennett, Joanie Miller.
Bill Novak, Tom DeForest, Pat Johnson,
Barb Ramsey, Margaret Jackson, Jane Button.
Bill Lyons, Dick Merrihew, Linda Porter,
Linda Benson, Sig Nelson, Kay Miller.

Our first grade year started off with a wham,
We got Carol Williams and Don Stringham.

Our second grade year was really a thrill.
In came Kitty Eaton and Marvin Hill.

Our third grade year was very quiet indeed.
Some tried to teach us but we paid no heed.

When our fourth grade year came, up went the rate.

Instead of no pupils, we received eight.
These peoples' names sure put me on the spot.
Could I get them to rhyme? Certainly not!
The First to come was a jolly trio,
Ray Bice, Becky Nahlik, Pat Pombrio.
A few weeks later in the door they stood,
Sandy Webb, Joy Jones and Roger Wood.
When the last two came in they were to be
Delored Lauria and Ruth Lacey.

In our fifth grade year we won trouble thrice.
They were Bob Cummings, Tom Borst and Ed Bice.

In our sixth grade year there was nobody new.
But there was enough in our motley crew.

Our seventh grade everyone remembers.
We not only lost, but gained three members.
To Kay Kalinoski we said, "Farewell."
Also to Dick Merrihew who was swell.

"Never fear," Said those three to assure us.
They were Larry Lloyd, Rod Hurlbutt, Jack Curtis.

In our next school year, 1958
We were ready to go, just couldn't wait.
Judy Allen came in to join our adventure
And together we've served our time of indenture.
We made it to high school, the tiresome race.
And there waiting were Ray Maine and Bob Chase.
In the midst of strife and ideals we learned,
Rog Wood and Dick Merrihew both returned.
As the boys' number grew, they thought they could push.
But one girl soon came. Her name is Barb Bush.

When we were Sophomores and things were a wreck,
We got four more boys, one, who was Ray Peck.
Three more boys who came when things were ajar,
Were Lee Benson, Brian Webb and Bob Starr.

In our Junior year we were known by name
As the class which nothing or no one could tame.
